

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Insurance

- 1) Trainees agree to only attend camp with comprehensive winter sports insurance that covers ski racing, ski race training, a valid passport, a completed up to date medical consent form and a signed travel consent form. Due to COVID-19 all medical consent forms must be returned to the UNIQ Snowsports Management team within 48 hours of the camp commencing. Mountain Helicopter recovery is extremely important to have in place as part of your athlete's comprehensive winter sports insurance policy as this could result in extortionate costs.
- 2) For UNIQ Snowsports to operate effectively, a minimum number of trainees must book onto the camp for it to take place. UNIQ Snowsports will monitor the bookings regularly to ensure that the minimum number has been achieved and be sure to inform parents/guardians of camp confirmation/cancellation as soon as possible. If in the unlikely event that it becomes necessary to cancel the training camp due to the reason above, UNIQ Snowsports will offer a full refund or credit note, but you will not be entitled to compensation.
- 3) *Cancellation insurance is strongly advised for all the reasons listed in these terms and conditions.

Bookings

- 4) Camp enquiries are to be made online at www.uniqsnowsports.com. Our Alpine camps are usually structured with inlier or outlier options, thus meaning bookings will only be accepted for camps which cover complete weeks, or individual dates stated for outliers. All camp information will be clearly explained online under the camp description. Inlier trainees can request periods of time less than the complete training week/camp; however, these must still be paid in full for the duration of the week/camp and must be agreed upon by a programme director.
- 5) By booking onto a UNIQ Snowsports camp, the athlete, parents or guardians give permission to the staff of UNIQ Snowsports to act in loco parentis and you are agreeing to abide by the full T&C's, policies, and code of conducts. These are inclusive of the athlete's code of conduct, the parents code of conduct, the anti-bullying policy, the disciplinary procedures and the Snowsport England 'Snow Safe' safeguarding policy.

COVID 19 Testing

- 6) All COVID-19 testing required to be undertaken before and during camp is not included in the prices listed on the website, nor are any extra costs which may be incurred if quarantine is required due to a member on camp testing positive in resort. Any additional costs, if any, will be billed for separately and fairly with no extra cost applied for the benefit of UNIQ Snowsports. Please ensure you read the T&Cs prior to booking.

Payments for UK Dryslope camps must be paid in full online to secure the athletes place on camp.

Refunds

- 10) In the event of injury or sickness no refunds will be given to you unless UNIQ Snowsports receive a full refund from the provider or service. Inlier trainees are required to return their lift pass to a member of UNIQ Snowsports staff promptly where it becomes not clear that the lift pass can no longer be used, as well as any supporting documentation that can help refund the cost of the lift pass. The same applies to hire equipment. Refunds cannot be guaranteed by UNIQ Snowsports as the host providers will have their own set terms and conditions.
- 11) Dryslope camps – Cancellation within 14 days of the camp commencing will result in no refund. Cancellation before the 14 days will include a full refund minus a £10 admin charge.
- 12) No refunds will be made to you in the event of cancellation, Government and Foreign Commonwealth Office advice, pandemic cancellation, or if no skiing is undertaken due to the lack of snow, too much snow, or if the lifts are broken unless UNIQ Snowsports receive a complete or part refund from the hosts. In the event a refund is given in full or partly to UNIQ Snowsports, booking parties shall be entitled to receive monies equal to the value of the refund granted to UNIQ Snowsports. Training camps where snow and weather conditions may limit the services provided, will be accessed by the management team and may result in a relocation of the camp destination.

Outliers (Trainees who make their own travel and accommodation bookings)

- 13) Subject to the availability on camp, outliers will be admitted. UNIQ Snowsports can only offer ski training/ race support on the slopes to outliers. Outliers are required to cover the costs of their lift pass, transport to and from the slopes, food and accommodation. Lift passes and meals can be an add-on purchase by prior agreement on booking forms. Outliers shall not use the inlier accommodation for any reason such as ski waxing or eating packed lunches, nor shall access to the bedrooms of resident trainees be allowable, unless otherwise stated or agreed upon with the management team.

Photography

- 14) Promotional content including photos and videos of trainees during UNIQ Snowsports camps may occasionally be posted online. By booking onto our camps, you must agree to the T&C's and privacy policy set out by UNIQ Snowsports, with optional consent to the use of the photography. If you do not wish to be used on our advertising and marketing content, the Photographic Opt-Out/In button on the booking form must be signed with your preferred choice.

Behaviour

- 15) By booking online, trainees agree to abide by the athletes' code of conduct and agree to the disciplinary procedures which may take place if said code of conduct is deemed as breached. If an athlete is thought to be in the opinion of UNIQ Snowsports staff, that he/she is putting training at risk or being interrupted, making another athlete feel uncomfortable; or the athlete puts UNIQ Snowsports reputation at risk, the athlete may be subject to leave the training environment. The athlete will be forced to leave the training camp if they are found to have been drinking alcohol, consuming illegal substances, cheating, engaging in sexual activities or showing antisocial behaviour. In these situations, at the expense of the parents, the trainee will be sent home. Severe cases may result in trainees with a permanent ban from the UNIQ Snowsports Club and any future camps, this decision will be held between the club committee with the disciplinary procedure being waived if necessary. No refund will be made and the cost of all other lodging and travel costs will be the responsibility of the trainee in question or the parents of the trainee if under 18. Trainees could be restricted from attending future training camps with UNIQ Snowsports and asked to find an alternative training provider.

Coach Qualifications

- 16) Employees of UNIQ Snowsports are professionally qualified, are educated in first aid training and all have enhanced DBS disclosures. All ski training practices and elements of fitness training are covered by advanced coaching qualifications. UNIQ Snowsports staff will oversee trainees engaging in a variety of activities and sports. If parents/guardians do not want their children to engage in additional activities outside skiing and exercise training, they should inform our staff before the camp commences. UNIQ Snowsports is not able to care for trainees with special needs apart from special dietary requirements. The house parents in resort will take care of these matters.

Core Programme

- 17) Payment for each invoice must be made in full each month as specified.
- 18) To ensure seamless payments, we recommend setting up a standing order for the monthly amount. Alternatively, you can fill in the details for the "Auto Pay" option via the payment link provided in the invoices. Our "Auto Pay" service is a hassle-free online payment solution that collects payments for each invoice on their due dates.
- 19) If you need to cancel any future camps on the Core Programme due to injury, you must provide evidence in the form of a doctor's note.
- 20) If you don't participate in the agreed 10 weeks Core Programme, you then agree to pay the remaining outstanding balance. This balance is calculated based on the difference between the standard full camp cost and the discounted fee you originally received, as well as the cost of the free jacket and a contribution towards the HealthKix fitness programmes.
